MEDICALLY INDIGENT, CHARITY CARE POLICY

Stonewall Memorial Hospital District offers charity discounts to patients who demonstrate an inability or limited ability to pay for the medically necessary services they require. This program requires the completion of an application and providing proof of household income. Charges may then be reduced by as much as 90%.

In situations where a patient's financial obligation to Stonewall Memorial Hospital District reaches significantly high levels, consideration will be given to establish Medical Indigence. The hospital district defines Medical Indigence as having a financial obligation that exceeds 33% of annual household income. In this case a charity adjustment is made to reduce the financial obligation down to 33% of annual household income in each calendar year.
